

Orford Golf Club

Code of Conduct

Access to the club is a privilege and comes with certain rights and responsibilities.

The Code of Conduct provides employees, members, guests and visitors with guidance on the standards of behaviour that are expected of them while they are on club premises and in their interactions with the Club.

It has been developed by the club to ensure everyone can enjoy amenities provided by the club in a safe, enjoyable and responsible manner.

Accordingly, employees, members, guests, volunteers and visitors shall:

- Respect the rights of others to enjoy the club's facilities and services.
- Interact with each other, the club's employees and volunteers in a courteous and respectful manner.
- Not engage in behaviour towards each other, the club's employees or volunteers that is intended to abuse or harass.
- Refrain from disorderly or disruptive behaviours.
- Show due consideration to the needs of others, including their right to privacy.
- Comply with club policies, signage and lawful directions of employees.
- Pay any applicable competition and green fees.
- Ensure minors are accompanied by a responsible adult.
- Abide by the dress code of the club (available upon request).
- Not bring or have in their possession illegal materials while on club premises.
- Handle property belonging to the club with care and diligence.
- Refrain from representing the club, unless properly authorised to do so.
- Not pursue personal activities on club premises, without prior permission.
- Not deliberately tarnish the reputation of the club or bring it into disrepute.
- Not act in a way that puts the health and safety of themselves and others at risk.
